Hello

In regards to the standards request for consulting public, I am responding with my personal view.

Our school users will travel by car, despite many efforts and much marketing to support otherwise. This is partly because many families work and juggle the school run with the next swift move to the workplace.

Therefore, there needs to be drop off zones, sufficient parking, wide pathways to protect children and families, and cycle paths to protect scooter use and cycling of young children and families.

There also needs to be adequate reinforcement of restrictions that are already in place.

With regards,
