

Design Examples

Winners and Nominees for RIBA
And British Homes Awards

Newhall Be, Harlow—Alison Brooks Architects

2013 RIBA Stirling Prize nominee

Buildings have been inspired by the traditional materials of Essex rural buildings, paired with modern architectural form.

Beaulieu Park, Chelmsford—Gardner Stewart Architects

Mix of residential homes with parkland and open spaces, linking different types of housing designs in a garden community development.

Bracelet Close, Corringham, Essex—Bell Phillips Architects

Social housing with communal front courtyard and private roof terrace.

Bruyn's Court, South Ockendon—Killian O'Sullivan

2016 RIBA National Award

Social Housing scheme for Elderly residents.

Trumpington Gardens, Cambridge
Private & Social housing.

Abode at Great Kneighton—Proctor and Mathews Partnership Architects
2012 Housing Design Awards 2016 RIBA National Award
Private & Social Housing scheme.

Marmalade Lane Co Housing, Cambridge—Mole Architects
RIBA Regional Award Winner 2019.

Goldsmith Street, Norwich—Mikhail Riches with Cathy Hawley Architects
Shortlist 2019 RIBA Stirling Award & Reginal RIBA National Award
100% Social Housing scheme.

Beaulieu, Essex—Countryside and L & Q

Mixed housing development of 3600 properties to aid expansion of Chelmsford.

Nominated for British Homes Award 2023.

Lovedon Fields—John Pardey Architects.

Nominated for 2022 RIBA Neave Brown Award for Housing

Abode at Great Kneighton, Cambridge. Architects—Proctor and Mathews Partnership
Major mixed use development
RIBA East Award 2015

Courtyard housing London Borough of Barking & Dagenham—Patel Taylor Architects.
Single-story dwellings for residents typically 65 years and older.

Grosvenor Road, Birmingham. Architects—Tricas, Oakley Architects, Thornton Firkin and Birmingham University.

12 homes built on brownfield site as a model for the Future Homes Standard 2025 and is being monitored for research purposes by the university.

Nominated for British Homes Award 2022 Sustainable Development.

Watton House, Knebworth, Hertfordshire

Architects—Emil Eve Architects

Nominated RIBA East Awards 2023

Extension and re-modelling of existing Arts & Craft style house.